

A Voyage for Children

17TH ANNUAL YOT CLUB HOLIDAY BENEFIT SPECTACULAR

When Saturday, November 23rd, 7 p.m. - 11p.m.

Where The Pinery at The Hill, 775 West Bijou Street Colorado Springs, CO 80905

Mission The 'YOT' Club's tagline, "A Voyage for Children" represents the goal of supporting area youth through community partnership by collecting 1,000+ new toys & stuffed animals for local youth of the Colorado Springs area. The Colorado Springs Conservatory Scholarship Fund benefits from monies raised for this event.

Admission Per Person 2 new unwrapped toys & 1 stuffed animal (grades K-5) plus $10 donation

Attire Black Tie Affair... "Prom for Adults"

Event Mission This signature evening will include light appetizers, signature cocktail specials, exciting door prizes & an exclusive performance by The Colorado Springs Conservatory followed by D.J. entertainment.

R.S.V.P. @ www.yotclub.org

"like" us on FB to stay up to date on latest event information

2013 Event Beneficiaries

The Colorado Springs Conservatory Scholarship Fund - 501 (c)3 • Christmas Stockings for Kids • West Elementary School, D-11

A Special Thanks to Our Volunteers

2013 Event Organizers

Aidan L. Ryan, The O'Neil Group Company • Chad White, Paradigm Real Estate

2013 Committee Members

Diana Atencio, Elegant Eloping • Alicia Davis, Pi Beta Phi & University of Colorado Cancer Center • Amanda Enloe, Make a Wish Foundation
Mark Ewell, Saint Aubyn Homes • Kristal Harger, NVision Dance • Lynnsy LeBlanc, MediaNews Group • Denise Oldach & Jessie Latham, Christmas Stockings for Kids
Pi Beta Phi Sorority, University of Colorado, Colorado Springs Lynn Seeley, North Middle School • Rod Thirion, Chair, Department of Business Pikes Peak
Community College • Lindsay Watts, TV News Broadcaster • Linda Weise, The Colorado Springs Conservatory • Chris White, Chris White Designs
Dieter Schnakenberg, Edelweiss Restaurant

A Big Thank You to Our Generous Sponsors

JERRY MARTIN STUDIOS

